

Find Us

St Agnes is located behind Kennington Park and the full address is St Agnes, Kennington, London SE11 4BB

Nearest tubes

Kennington (Northern line)

Oval (Northern line)

Elephant and Castle (Northern, Bakerloo and national rail)

Bus links

133 (Liverpool St to Streatham)

155/333 (Tooting to Lambeth)

415 (Tulse Hill to Old Kent Road)

There are also other direct bus links from Brixton, New Cross and across South-East and Central London. Use bus stops at Kennington Park Road, Camberwell New Road and the Oval.

Free live classical music in Kennington

Kennington Park Recital Series

2019

Spring Season 2019

Sundays at 18:00

---

ImprovIndigo | 28th April

Meera Maharaj (flute) and Sarah Gait (cello) both graduated from the RNCM before pursuing postgraduate studies at RAM. ImprovIndigo explore multi-media projects, with cross-genre collaborations including poets, live artists and Indian classical musicians.

---

Victoria Brooks (Jazz Singer) | 12th May

Victoria is a Dublin born singer studying jazz at the Guildhall School of music and Drama. Her broad style contains influences from jazz, soul, gospel and folk type music as well as having a love for Musical Theatre. She has performed in musicals such as West Side Story, Sweeny Todd and All Shook Up.

---

Cor8 | 26th May

Cor8 is a London-based all-female French Horn octet comprising performers from the city's music conservatoires. The ensemble's players have performed at renowned London venues such as the Royal Albert Hall, Queen Elizabeth Hall, Union Chapel, Central Hall Westminster and many more.

---

Gabriella Jones (Harp) | 9th June

Gabriella Jones studied at the Guildhall School and has performed at venues such as St Martins-in-the-field, the Royal Albert Hall and St John's Smith Square.

---

Matt Geer (Organ) | 25th June

This special concert presents a series of new music by contemporary composers written especially for this concert series. This will be accompanied by music by Howard Skempton, Jurg Frey and Naji Hakim.

Free entry (retiring collection)

Autumn Season 2019

---

soundSpark | 29th September

soundSPARK is an innovative chamber group of woodwind musicians that is passionate about bringing the highest level of music performance to all areas of the UK, especially within local community settings.

---

Duo Arasari | 13th October

Emily Shapiro is a clarinet and bass clarinetist who studied in British Columbia before moving to London in 2011. Laura Beardsmore studied at Royal Holloway university and together perform a wide range of repertoire, also specialising in bass clarinet/low flutes.

---

The Riviola Ensemble | 27th October

The Riviola Ensemble, formed in 2012, is made up of international viola players who have all studied under the guidance of esteemed viola professor, Rivka Golani with the purpose of discovering and mastering new and existing repertoire.

---

Apollo Winds | 10th November

Apollo winds are a woodwind octet formed of conservatoire students, with a wide and varied repertoire.

---

Anastasia Sofina (Viola) | 24th November

Originally from Moscow, Anastasia studied at the Royal College of Music and is a laureate of 15 international competitions. She has played at many prestigious venues and recently appeared on BBC3's 'In Tune'.